

Some Descendants of Reuben Elbon -- Updated 20 Feb 2015, roncoff@ca.rr.com

Generation One

1. Reuben Elbon, born abt 1763 in Kent County, Maryland, died bef 1840 in Wythe County, Virginia. He married (1) Margaret Niswanger (widow of Abraham Niswanger), born abt 1752, died abt 1796 in Frederick County, Virginia, marriage bond 30-Aug-1787 in Frederick County, Virginia. He married (2) Mary Gorley, born abt 1775 in Frederick County, Virginia (daughter of John Gorley and Ann _____?), marriage bond 24-Oct-1798 in Frederick County, Virginia.

On 16-May-1781 Reuben along with a William Elbon (possibly a brother) in Kent County, Maryland enlisted in the Maryland Continental Army for three years. Reuben moved to Wythe County, Virginia shortly after his marriage to Mary Gorley, he is on the 1800 Wythe County, Virginia Tax List and he also appears on the 1810, 1820 and 1830 Wythe County Census.

The following proof that Margaret Niswanger was the widow of Abraham is documented in "From the Rhine to the Shenandoah" Vol III by Daniel W. Bly 2002.

Abraham had 141 acres of land deeded to him by his brother John. The last year he paid taxes on it was 1786. In 1787, Margaret "widow" paid the taxes and then from 1788 to 1795, Reuben Elbon paid the tax for Niswanger. By 1796, John Niswanger, son of Abraham and Margaret had come of age, married and took over the same 141 acres and paid the taxes on it after that.

Children by Margaret Niswanger:

- 2 i. William Elbon, born abt 1788 in Virginia, died Aug-1861 in Shenandoah County, Virginia.<sup>1</sup> He married Catherine Rorer, born abt 1788 in Shenandoah County, Virginia (daughter of Henry Rorer and Elizabeth Foltz), marriage bond 11-Jun-1818 in Shenandoah County, Virginia. William had no children, he helped raise some of the children of Montgomery and Lorenzo after their death.
- + 3 ii. Montgomery R. Elbon born abt 1799.
- + 4 iii. Lorenzo Dow Elbon born abt 1802.
- + 5 iv. Harold R. Elbon born 25-Feb-1814.

Generation Two

3. Montgomery R. Elbon (1.Reuben<sup>1</sup>), born abt 1799 in Virginia, died 25-Mar-1849 in Shenandoah County, Virginia.<sup>2</sup> He married (1) Margaret Hinkins, born 23-Jan-1800 in Shenandoah County, Virginia (daughter of George Hinkins and Mary "Polly" Supinger), died abt 1841 in Shenandoah County, Virginia, marriage bond 14-Apr-1821 in Shenandoah County, Virginia. He married (2) Ann Miller, born abt 1800 in Virginia, marriage bond 27-Jun-1843 in Shenandoah County, Virginia.

Children by Margaret Hinkins:

- 6 i. Mary Ann Elbon born abt 1822 in Shenandoah County, Virginia. She married Philip Miller, marriage bond 15-Nov-1841 in Shenandoah County, Virginia.
- + 7 ii. George W. Elbon born 29-May-1825.
- 8 iii. Benjamin Elbon born abt 1826 in Shenandoah County, Virginia, died bef 1840 in Hardy County, Virginia (now West Virginia). Benjamin was the reason I started my research on the descendants of Reuben Elbon. Raymond Lee Elbon #541 has a hatchet with Benjamin Elbon carved on the handle that was handed down through his family. He wanted to know who this Benjamin Elbon was. Beings Raymond is a descendant of Montgomery, I started there. On the 1830 census in Hardy County Montgomery has two males under five, this would be Benjamin and Montgomery and one male 10-14 this would be George. On the 1840 census in Hampshire County Montgomery has two males 10-14 this would be George and Montgomery, no Benjamin.
Benjamin would have had to been old enough to read and write and coordinated enough to carve his name on the hatchet handle. He probably would have been about 10-12 when he did the carving and he probably died between 1836 and 1840 as he is not on the 1840 census.
I am quite confident that this is the Benjamin carved on the hatchet handle, his brother Montgomery named his first son Benjamin.
- + 9 iv. Montgomery H. Elbon born 22-Jan-1828.
- 10 v. John H. Elbon born 31-Jan-1831 in Hardy County, Virginia (now West Virginia), died 16-Dec-1915 in Montgomery County, Ohio,<sup>3</sup> buried in Okmulgee Cemetery, Okmulgee County, Oklahoma. He married Angeline M. Carroll, 10-Feb-1870 in Clinton County, Ohio, born 1830 in Harrison County, Virginia (now West Virginia) (daughter of Stephens Carroll and Rebecca Shinn), died 8-Oct-1908 in Oklahoma, buried in

Was left wounded in the hospital at Resaca 15-May-1864 through 31-Oct-1864. In hospital at Camp Dennison, Ohio to 3-Apr-1865. Honorably discharged 16-Jun-1865. Mustered out on 26-Jun-1865 at Columbus, Ohio. John applied for a disability pension on 19 May 1869. No children.

- + 11 vi. James H. Elbon born 8-Oct-1835.
- + 12 vii. Joseph L. Elbon born 23-Oct-1840.

4. Lorenzo Dow Elbon (1.Reuben<sup>1</sup>), born abt 1802 in Wythe County, Virginia, died bef 3-Apr-1845 in Rockingham County, Virginia. He married Catherine Copp, born 1805 in Shenandoah County, Virginia (daughter of John Copp and Anna Elizabeth Artz), died 6-Feb-1879 in Shenandoah County, Virginia, marriage bond 5-Oct-1822 in Shenandoah County, Virginia. Lorenzo was still living 25-Nov-1840, on this date he signed a permission slip in Rockingham County for his daughter Eliza to marry. On 3-Apr-1845 in Shenandoah County Lorenzo's daughter Mary Ann posted a marriage bond and it states she is a daughter of Catherine so, this would probably indicate Lorenzo is deceased by this date.

Children:

5. Harold R. He married Catherine Michael, born 28-Feb-1819 in Pendleton County, West Virginia, died 25-Jan-1876 in Pendleton County, West Virginia, marriage bond 18-Jan-1836 in Rockingham County, Virginia.

Harold R. Elbon was taken prisoner because of disloyalty on 17-Jun-1863 in Pendleton County, West Virginia by the Union Army, age 50, citizen. Apparently he did something to aid the Rebels and the Union Army didn't like it, no further information on the particulars. Harold was sent to Fort Delaware, Pea Patch Island, Delaware for confinement and died there 5-Sep-1863. Harold's name is on the Confederate Monument at Finns Point National Cemetery across the Delaware River in New Jersey. He is listed as Elbum, H. R., Civilian, died 5-Sep-1863 from Virginia. Harold was one of 36 civilians that died at Fort Delaware.

In April, 1862, Fort Delaware, a masonry fortification located on Pea Patch Island in the Delaware River, received its first prisoners of war- a total of 358 Confederate soldiers from the Battle of Kernstown, Va. By January, 1866 when the fort was discontinued as a prison, the number of men confined had reached 22,773. This total includes southern soldiers, officers and political prisoners.

House Report No. 45- 3rd Session, 40th Congress (1868-69) states that 2,502 of these men died on the island. Of this number, the bodies of 2,436 soldiers and 36 civilians were buried in trenches at Finn's Point National cemetery on the New Jersey shore overlooking Fort Delaware. Identification was soon lost. Later a granite obelisk was erected in their honor. Around the monument's base bronze plaques bear the names of the interred. Three soldiers' bodies were turned over to friends and relatives for private burial; 27 are unaccounted for.

Fort Delaware has been called "the Andersonville of the North -- the most dreaded Union prison."

Generation Three

7. George W. Elbon (3.Montgomery R.<sup>2</sup>, 1.Reuben<sup>1</sup>), born 29-May-1825 in Shenandoah County, Virginia, died 29-Apr-1899 in Warren County, Ohio, buried in Miami Cemetery, Corwin, Warren County, Ohio. He married Sarah Sherwood, 20-Feb-1855 in Warren County, Ohio, born 10-Jun-1837 in Warren County, Ohio (daughter of Henry Sherwood and Hester Adaline Jeffery), died 7-Jul-1925 in Warren County, Ohio, buried in Miami Cemetery, Corwin, Warren County, Ohio. Here is a biographical sketch of George W. Elbon by W.H. Beers Co., 1882 that appeared in "The History of Warren County, Ohio".

GEORGE W. ELBON, farmer, P. O. Oregon; was born in Shenandoah Co, Va., May 29, 1824; he is a son of Montgomery and Margaret (Hinkins) Elbon, who were natives of Virginia. When our subject was 14 years of age, his parents died, and from that on he was compelled to do for himself. In 1849, he came to Warren Co., and in 1856 settled on his present farm, where he has ever since re-sided, pursuing the avocation of farming and stock-raising. He was married Feb. 20, 1855, to Sarah Sherwood, daughter of Henry and Hester Sherwood, born in Washington Township, June 10, 1837. Their three children are as follows: Hester A., born Dec. 5, 1855, Sylvan F., born Aug. 21, 1857; and William H., born Dec. 27, 1864. Mr. Elbon and family are members of the M. E. church. He owns a farm of 126 ½ acres with good improvements. Politically he votes Republican.

Author's note: This can't be entirely accurate, if George's parents died when he was 14 years of age they would have died in 1838. His father was married the second time in 1843 and died in 1849 in Shenandoah County. His mother was still living in 1840, she probably died about 1842.

- 367 ii. Robert Elbon Stalnaker born 4-Mar-1922, died Jul-1953 in Sea of Japan. He married Betty (James) Frazier, 29-Dec-1951 in Pikeville, Kentucky. On July 29, 1953, Robert Stalnaker was one of a 17-member crew on a US RB-50G that was given a special assignment over the Sea of Japan. Another West Virginian, Airman 2nd Class James E. Woods from Upshur County, was also a member of the crew. Robert and five other crewmen were electronics specialists known as Ravens, and on that day one of their assignments was to investigate radar facilities along the Soviet border. The best way to do that was to provoke the Russians into turning on their search and control radar, which was usually done only when the early warning radar detected a potential threat. This risky maneuver was known as ferreting because the goal was to ferret out information about the capabilities of the Soviet equipment. The Russians understood the game and tried not to be lured into turning on their equipment, which would expose the capabilities of their system to the United States. After completing the mission at about 6:15 AM, the US RB-50G was returning to the base at Yokota when it was intercepted and unexpectedly fired upon from the rear by two Russian MiG-17 fighter planes. The gunfire from the MiG-17 at the rear disabled the RB-50G's No. 1 engine and set the No. 4 engine on fire. The attack also tore off part of the tail section and destroyed the wing. The tail gunner, James E. Woods, was able to return a brief burst of fire at the MiG-17, but to no avail, and commander Captain Stanley O'Kelley ordered the crew to bail out. The plane lost altitude quickly and crashed into the sea. The attack occurred two days after the armistice ending the Korean War was signed on July 27, 1953.

The US conducted a thorough search of the area by air and sea, and was assisted by an Australian ship near the crash site. Halted due to dense fog and approaching darkness, the search was resumed on the morning of July 30, 1953. Captain John Roche, co-pilot of the plane, was wounded but survived the crash by holding onto pieces of the wreckage. He was picked up by the Navy ship USS Picking in the early morning hours of July 30, 1953 after floating in the Sea of Japan for about 22 hours. No other survivors were found. The bodies of Captain Stanley O'Kelley and Master Sergeant Francis Brown were later recovered along the coast of Japan. The remaining 14 members of the crew, which included Robert Stalnaker, were never accounted for.
